

19th January 2007

Generations South Africa's number one daily drama announces the departure of Vusi Kunene from the series in March 2007.

Mfundu Vundla Executive Producer: says "It has been an amazing journey with Vusi, but he has decided not to renew his contract for 2007. Generations wishes Vusi all the best for the future as he is a brilliant actor".

Moonyeen-Lee Vusi's agent said that Vusi would not be renewing his contract for 2007, as he would not be accepting the financial offer put forward by the show.

Kunene joined the cast of Generations in 2005 full time, and plays the character of Jack Mabaso.

Viewers will be happy to know that Jack Mabaso will be on screen till July.
